Executive Summary:

Dyfed-Powys Police (DPP) and the OPCC will be under a duty to comply with the Welsh Language Standards from 30th March 2017. In order to promote the use of Welsh in the workplace and to launch the requirements set out by the standards, DPP plan to host a series of events throughout the force area. These events will also involve the OPCC staff. Promotional materials will be provided explaining the standards and how to comply. Resources will also be made available for public display to demonstrate our compliance with the standards. DPP will be funding the majority of the expenditure, but request a contribution of £1,000 from the PCC.
