Rt Hon Theresa May MP Home Secretary 2 Marsham Street London SW1P 4DF

27 July 2015

Dear Home Secretary,

As required within Section 55(5) of the Police Act 1996, I write in response to the recently published findings of Her Majesty's Inspectorate of Constabulary (HMIC), PEEL Assessment.

I welcome this analysis and agree that police forces across England and Wales have work to do to meet the fast-evolving needs of our communities. British policing must change in culture, organisation and ability to use new policing technology.

It is reassuring that Dyfed-Powys Police is rated as good by the PEEL report. I am determined to continue our work to ensure the force is fully fit to fight  $21^{st}$  Century crime with a  $21^{st}$  Century approach.

A copy of this response is published on my website.
