POLICE AND CRIME COMMISSIONER FOR DYFED-POWYS CORONAVIRUS RESPONSE

To support Dyfed-Powys Police through the emergency situation created by COVID-19, I will focus on:

SECURING RESOURCES

I will make sure the Chief Constable has the resources he needs to respond to and recover from the emergency.

HOLDING TO ACCOUNT

I will, on your behalf, make sure that Dyfed-Powys Police respond in ways that are necessary, sufficient, proportionate and ethical.

ENHANCING DELIVERY

I will work with partners across community safety and criminal justice to make sure justice is efficient and effective.

COMMUNITY SAFETY AND CRIME REDUCTION

I will continue to commission services to support you to recover from the effects of crime. I will provide grants to partners to reduce criminal behaviour and its impact on our communities.

BEING YOUR LOCAL LINK

I will make sure you have the information you need to understand how your police service is performing. I will work with you and Dyfed-Powys Police to ensure your voice is heard.

UNDERPINNED BY THE POLICE AND CRIME DELIVERY PLAN 2017-21

Safeguarding our communities together: Working together to provide a first class service that is visible and accessible, ensuring that our communities remain safe. We will be there when the public need us and we will act with fairness and respect in all that we do.

ACTION SO FAR

Whilst the majority of staff are now working remotely, the Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner is still working hard for the people of Carmarthenshire, Ceredigion, Pembrokeshire and Powys:

SECURING RESOURCES

1. All COVID-19 associated costs and savings reported nationally to inform future funding negotiations.
2. Established an earmarked COVID-19 reserve fund.
3. Daily dialogue with Chief Officers about the demands on the Force.
4. Weekly meetings with Welsh Parliament and UK Government.
5. Deep cleaning of buildings, physical reorganisation and delivering essential supplies to keep the frontline operating.

HOLDING TO ACCOUNT

1. Weekly monitoring of Force performance and crime trends.
2. Virtual accountability meetings.
3. Remote custody record reviewing in place of physical visits.
4. Supporting the Force's organisational learning and recovery from the crisis.
5. Continuing to respond to correspondence and complaints from the public, escalating to the Chief Officer Team when appropriate to address issues as they arise.

ENHANCING DELIVERY

1. Virtual Local Criminal Justice Board meeting to discuss collective arrangements to keep the criminal justice system running in our area.
2. Calling for an extraordinary All-Wales Criminal Justice Board meeting early to understand the impact the crisis would have on delivering swift justice.
3. Weekly meetings with the Home Office.
4. Continuing funding for and dialogue with community safety partners.
5. Support the Force's project on improving the victim experience.

COMMUNITY SAFETY

1. Weekly monitoring of PCC-commissioned services' demand, capacity and risks.
2. Weekly dialogue with the Ministry of Justice.
3. Secured services' funding throughout the crisis.
4. Assured crime and antisocial behaviour prevention projects that funding will be carried forward.
5. Preparing for the anticipated change in demand for support services as lockdown eases.

BEING YOUR LOCAL LINK

1. Press interviews, statements and podcasts supporting the Force's message urging people to stay home and protect the NHS.
2. Lobbied Welsh Ministers for access to testing for frontline officers and staff.
3. Written and virtual briefings for all local Assembly Members and Members of Parliament.
4. Virtual public meeting for residents to have their say, to be repeated regularly for each of our four counties.
5. Newsletter informing residents of our response to COVID-19 and the support services available to you.
